Top Itineraries

Day One

Old Montréal (p46)

 Take the subway to Place-d'Armes and make a beeline for the stunning Basilique Notre-Dame. Explore the cobblestoned streets of the old town, winding your way to the sailors' church, Chapelle Notre-Dame-de-Bonsecours. Stroll up Place Jacques-Cartier with its many buskers and artists, into the Château Ramezay museum.

Lunch Grab a tasty baguette sandwich at Titanic (p58).

Old Montréal (p46)

 Deepen your understanding of the city's history at the excellent Musée d'Archéologie et d'histoire Pointe-à-Callière before crossing Pl d'Youville to Fonderie Darling for its innovative contemporary-art installations.

Dinner Garde-Manger (p59) for a fun crowd, and tasty cocktails and dishes.

Old Montréal (p46)

 If you're not dining in style, grab a quick pizza at Bevo before catching a show at Cirque du Soleil in the Old Port. You might also consider watching the sky turn various colors at sunset while downing an old-fashioned on the rooftop patio at Terrasse Nelligan. Party the night away at scenergetic magnet Velvet or Philémon, which will rock you until 3am.

Day Two

Downtown (p71)

 Start your tour of downtown Montréal at Musée des Beaux-Arts de Montréal for its excellent collection of Old Masters and contemporary art. Architecture aficionados will dig the contemporary Desmarais pavilion as well as the Claire & Marc Bourgeois Pavilion in an 1890s church. Next stroll down Rue Sherbrooke Ouest, home to tiny shops and heritage mansions, toward McGill University.

Lunch Vegetarian-friendly Lola Rosa (p79) has great food and ambience.

Canal de Lachine (p132)

 Hop on the metro to Lionel-Groulx and walk down to Marché Atwater for a look at the farmers' produce, croissants and cheese. If you have the energy, rent a Bixi bike from a nearby station and pedal the Canal de Lachine. If not, consider a cruise on the canal.

Dinner For incredible Québécois fare, try Joe Beef (p81) if you can get in.

Downtown (p71)

 Upstairs has nightly jazz performances, or better yet the jazz festival will be rocking the blocks around Place des Arts if your timing is right. Otherwise grab a postdinner glass at the Dominion Square Tavern or hear some beats at underground Bleury Bar à Vinyle.

Day Three

Little Italy, Mile End & Outremont (p116)

Make for Little Italy to explore the mouthwatering Marché Jean-Talon. Stroll down to the local church, the Église Madonna della Difesa, and be sure to spot Mussolini on the ceiling. Browse the old-world shops along Blvd St-Laurent before hopping a bus (or Bixi) to Mile End.

Lunch Enjoy market-fresh fare at the charming little Arts Cafe (p118).

Little Italy, Mile End & Outremont (p116)

Ramble along St-Viateur and Bernard, visiting Drawn & Quarterly for its whimsical book selections, hipster curiosities at Monastiraki and artfully recycled objects at Galerie CO. Before dinner, grab a taxi to Parc du Dinner Inventive Vietnamese fusion and drinks at Hà (p110).

Mont-Royal for a panoramic view of the city from Kondiaronk lookout.

Plateau Mont-Royal (p101)

Head down to Casa del Popolo and see what the hipster kids are cheering for on stage. Afterward, take a late-night bar crawl down Blvd St-Laurent. Stop in Big in Japan for elegance and high-end libations, Majestique for oysters

Day Four

Parc Jean-Drapeau (p66)

A river runs through it, dividing Parc Jean-Drapeau into two isles. Begin at Île Ste-Hélène with a tour of remarkable buildings from yesteryear. Learn about the environment and our impact on it at the Biosphère, housed in Buckminster Fuller's geodesic dome built for Expo '67. Not far away, the Musée Stewart is the site of an authentic British garrison.

Lunch Snacks along the forested paths.

Parc Jean-Drapeau (p66)

Wander the island's walking paths, taking in the outdoor sculptures before kicking up your heels at Piknic Électronik, a summertime electronica dance fest. If it's not on, try for some thrills on the world's tallest wooden roller coaster at La Ronde. You can grab panoramic but decidedly slower views of the city from 45m up on the Ferris wheel.

Dinner High-end fare at a new restaurant in the Casino de Montréal (p69).

Parc Jean-Drapeau (p66)

The island is a perfect spot to watch the sky explode with fireworks during L'International des Feux Loto Québec. If not, the Casino de Montréal has everything you need for a good time; just bring luck. Or take a long walk or quick taxi ride to Habitat '67,

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Regis St Louis

Coordinating Author A long-time admirer of the free-spirited ethos that rules Québec, Regis has fallen hard for Montréal. He never tires of exploring the city's tree-lined neighborhoods, munching his way through its markets and cycling its many bike lanes. On this recent trip, he experienced Montréal's coldest February in history (what's -20C among friends?), joined the all-night revelry of Nuit Blanche and admired enchanting wintry landscapes in city parks. Regis has contributed to dozens of Lonely Planet titles, including a previous edition of Montréal & Québec City. When not exploring the back lanes of Québec, he resides in Brooklyn, New York.

Gregor Clark

Québec City, Day Trips from Montréal A lifelong Francophile and a resident of neighboring Vermont, Gregor has long been smitten with Québec and regularly hops across the border for doses of French-Canadian culture. Québec City remains one of his favorite North American cities (alongside San Francisco). He especially enjoyed sharing Winter Carnival with family while researching this edition. Gregor has written three dozen Lonely Planet guides since 2000, mostly focused on Europe and Latin America. He also wrote the Understand and Survival Guide sections of this guide.
