about the authors

Dan Bacon is an American who lived for eight years in Morocco where he started and managed Crown English Bookshop in the town of Agadir. Dan is currently employed as an engineer in the United States.

Bichr Andjar is a Moroccan who grew up and currently lives in Agadir, Morocco. He studied linguistics at the University of Agadir and has taught Moroccan Arabic to American Peace Corps Volunteers. Bichr is currently employed at the Airport in Agadir.

Many thanks to Abdennabi Benchehda for his work on the Sustainable Travel chapter.

from the authors

The authors wish to thank all of their friends in Agadir for their help in proofreading and making suggestions for the third edition of the phrasebook. Dan would like to thank his wife Kerry and sons Nate and Zach for their patience and understanding during the project.

from the publisher

Vicki Webb co-edited the book, along with Justin Rudelson who provided linguistic expertise between fending off Australian wildlife. Peter D'Onghia proofread and kept a sanguine eye on production. Brendan Dempsey designed and laid out the book with the aid of Penelope Richardson, but didn't make the cast of Falcon Crest, and Chelle Rudelson created the illustrations.

The second edition of the Lonely Planet Moroccan Arabic phrasebook was written by Dan Bacon and Bichr Andjar. Rachel Williams, with help from the LP language gurus, commissioned new content for the third edition. The French and Berber chapters were compiled at Lonely Planet.

make the most of this phrasebook ...

Anyone can speak another language! It's all about confidence. Don't worry if you can't remember your school language lessons or if you've never learnt a language before. Even if you learn the very basics (on the inside covers of this book), your travel experience will be the better for it. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain when the locals hear you making an effort.

For easy navigation, this book is in sections. The Pronunciation and Grammar chapters are the ones you'll thumb through time and again. The Getting Around and Accommodation chapters cover basic travel situations like catching transport and finding a bed. The Meeting People chapter gives you conversational phrases and the ability to express opinions – so you can get to know people. Food has a section all of its own: gourmets and vegetarians are covered and local dishes feature. The Health and Emergencies chapters equip you with health and police phrases, just in case. Use the comprehensive Index to find everything easily. Otherwise, check the traveller's Dictionary for the word you need.

Throughout this book you'll see coloured phrases on each page. They're phonetic guides to help you pronounce the language. Start with them to get a feel for how the language sounds. The Pronunciation chapter will explain more, but you can be confident that if you read the coloured phrase, you'll be understood.

communication tips

Body language, ways of doing things, sense of humour – all have a role to play in every culture. The boxes included throughout this phrasebook give you useful cultural and linguistic information that will help you communicate with the locals and enrich your travel experience.
