Top Itineraries

Day One

French Quarter (p58)

Wake up and smell the coffee (and enjoy a croissant) at Croissant D'Or (p73). Afterwards sign up for the Friends of the Cabildo walking tour (p66), our favorite introduction to the architectural wonders of the French Quarter.

Lunch Mister Gregory's (p74) Baguettes with innovative sandwich fillings.

French Quarter (p58)

Wander through Jackson Square (p60), the green heart of the neighborhood, and explore the Quarter's museums, such as the Cabildo (p62) and Presbytère (p63). Afterwards, enjoy a free afternoon concert at the Old US Mint (p65).

Dinner Bayona (p76) Base of hometown legend Susan Spicer.

French Quarter (p58)

Relax with a drink at Tonique (p77) or French 75 (p78), two of the finest cocktail bars in a city that invented the cocktail. Take in a show at Preservation Hall (p81) or One Eyed Jacks (p80), and when the music is over have a 3am breakfast at the Clover Grill (p72).

Day Two

CBD & Warehouse District (p100)

Spend a morning visiting the Ogden Museum of Southern Art (p103). Once you've immersed yourself in the aesthetics of the region, consider perusing some history at the National WWII Museum (p102).

Lunch Cochon Butcher (p111) Artisan meats with a Cajun twist.

Garden, Lower Garden & Central City (p115)

Stroll along pretty Magazine St in a state of shopping nirvana. Then walk north, pop into Lafayette Cemetery No 1 (p117) and hop onto the St Charles Avenue Streetcar (p135), heading west toward Audubon Park (p131). Afterwards, take the streetcar towards the Riverbend.

Dinner Ba Chi Canteen (p135) Vietnamese cooked with New Orleans indulgence.

Uptown & Riverbend (p130)

Have a boozy night perusing the excellent beer menu at Cooter Brown's Tavern & Oyster Bar (p139) and consider having an oyster or ten on the side. Then finish it off by heading to the Maple Leaf Bar (p141) or Tipitina's (p141) and rocking out to whoever is playing.

Day Three

Faubourg Marigny & Bywater (p85)

Get the day going with oysters and grits at Cake Café & Bakery (p90). Eat early so you can join the morning Creole Neighborhoods cycle tour with Confederacy of Cruisers (p93). If you don't fancy traveling on two wheels, walk past Washington Square Park (p88) and Elysian Fields Ave into the residential portion of the Marigny.

Lunch Lost Love (p89) dive bar has a surprise Vietnamese kitchen.

Faubourg Marigny & Bywater (p85)

Walk east (or 'down' in New Orleans directional-speak) along Royal or Congress Sts and check out the riot of colorful houses. Once you pass Press St, you're in the Bywater; look for Dr Bob's Studio (p97). Then take a walk into the Dinner Bacchanal (p89) for wine and cheese in a musical garden.

Crescent Park (p87), where you can enjoy great views of the Mississippi.

Faubourg Marigny & Bywater (p85)

Stay in the neighborhood to listen to live music on St Claude Ave or on Frenchmen St (p87).

Day Four

Mid-City & the Tremé (p144)

Consider renting a bicycle and riding around the Tremé; Governor Nicholls St is particularly attractive. Driving is also an option. While in the neighborhood, don't miss the Backstreet Cultural Museum (p151); from here, it's an easy walk into Louis Armstrong Park. (p152)

Lunch Dooky Chase (p155) is the queen of local soul food.

Mid-City & the Tremé (p144)

Head up Esplanade Avenue (p149) and gawk at all the gorgeous Creole mansions sitting prettily under live oaks. Take Esplanade Ave all the way to City Park (p146) and wander around the New Orleans Museum of Art (p146). Afterwards, Dinner Café Degas (p154) for fabulously romantic French fine dining.

you can relax for a spell under the trees or along the banks of bucolic Bayou St John.

Mid-City & the Tremé (p144)

Have a well-mixed drink at friendly Twelve Mile Limit (p156); it also serves barbecue, in case you feel peckish again. End the night at Mid-City Rock & Bowl (p157), a mix of bowling alley and concert hall.

MID-CITY & THE TREMÉ

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Amy C Balfour

CBD & Warehouse District; Garden, Lower Garden & Central City; Uptown & Riverbend; Mid-City & the Tremé Amy's first visit to New Orleans was a college trip to Mardi Gras when the four B's – bars, beads, boys and a ball gown – were her only concerns. She has now added boudin. Amy has visited 47 states but keeps returning to New Orleans to explore more of the city. On this trip she fell for City Park, Clancy's, and 12 Mile Limit. Amy has authored or co-authored 27 Lonely Planet guidebooks. Amy also wrote the Survival Guide.

Adam Karlin

French Quarter, Faubourg Marigny & Bywater, Day Trips from New Orleans

Adam first came to New Orleans as a young freshman on spring break back in 1999. Even through a haze of dumb nights on Bourbon, he knew the place was special, a feeling that was confirmed when he revisited a decade later for Lonely Planet. That time around, he really fell for New Orleans, and now lives there with his wife and daughter. Otherwise, Adam has written over 45 guidebooks for Lonely Planet, primarily covering the Americas, but stretching as far afield as the Andaman Islands to the Zimbabwe Border (get it? A-Z? Never mind). Adam also wrote the Plan Your Trip and Understand New Orleans chapters.
