Top Itineraries

Day One

Pike Place (p40)

Early birds catch more than worms at Pike Place Market. Arrive promptly at 9am for some real-life street theater at market roll call before wandering over to the Main Arcade to see the fish throwers warming up. Spend the morning getting lost, browsing, tasting, buying and bantering with the producers, but don't miss the gum wall or Rachel the Market Pig. Afterward, be sure to wander down to the market extension overlooking the waterfront.

Lunch Grab some mac 'n' cheese at Beecher's Handmade Cheese (p51).

Downtown & Waterfront (p40)

Scamper across Alaskan Way and marvel at the vistas created by the demolition of the viaduct that used to blight this area. Be a tourist and head for the Aquarium on Pier 59, or become a local and jump on a Puget Sound ferry just for the ride. Allow a good hour to browse the latest exhibits at Seattle Art Museum (SAM) on the western edge of downtown.

Dinner Enjoy a seafood feast on the water at Elliott's Oyster House (p53).

Pioneer Square (p63)

Head to Pioneer Square for a drink in the amiable sports bar Fuel before hitting the Comedy Underground, where even poker-faced misérables have been known to break.

Day Two

Seattle Center (p80)

Give in to your most touristy instincts and head to the Seattle Center. After a cursory orientation of the complex, opt first for the crystallized magnificence of Chihuly Garden & Glass. If you buy a joint-admission ticket you can zip up the adjacent Space Needle afterwards for equally dazzling views.

Lunch Pop into Belltown for lunch at lauded Tilikum Place Cafe (p90).

Seattle Center (p80)

After lunch, enjoy glittering Elliott Bay views and giant, imaginative art at the Olympic Sculpture Park before returning to the Seattle Center for an afternoon of rock-n-roll nostalgia at the Museum of Pop Culture. Stroll along 6th Ave afterward and pop into the Assembly Hall for a cup of coffee and a free game of pool.

Dinner Decamp for a plate of home-made pasta to Tivolàta (p91).

Belltown (p80)

Start off with a game of pinball in Shorty's. If you like your bars divey, stay put. For a taste of modern Belltown, hit the Whisky Bar and order a Westland single malt, or agonize over the selection of truly novel cocktails at No Anchor. End the night by seeing who's playing at the Crocodile.

Day Three

Pioneer Square (p63)

 Start the morning like a true Seattleite with a latte in Zeitgeist, possibly the city's best indie coffee shop. Cross the road, admiring 1890s redbrick architecture, and visit the entertaining, educational and free Klondike Gold Rush National Historical Park. If there's time, take a gilded-age elevator up the Smith Tower before lunch.

Lunch Hit the International District for dim sum in Jade Garden (p71).

International District (p63)

 In the ID, call in on its most famous sight, the Wing Luke Museum, and its most esoteric, the Pinball Museum (for a quick game), before imbibing tea and Japanese American history in the Panama Hotel Tea & Coffee House. From here, climb up through genteel First Hill to Capitol Hill.

Dinner Indulge in Seattle's locavore culture at Sitka & Spruce (p116).

Capitol Hill (p110)

 Spontaneous evenings in Capitol Hill start early and go on till late. Warm up on the Pike-Pine corridor with a cocktail on the patio at Pony before heading over to Optimism Brewing Co for a straight-from-the-beer-vat microbrew. Those with high alcohol thresholds can keep mixing at Capitol Cider. Those with a penchant for cool indie music delivered live should check out Neumo's.

Day Four

Lake Union (p100)

 It's time for a journey through Seattle's outer neighborhoods. Start the morning in South Lake Union, where a lakeside park hosts the Museum of History & Industry, a roller-coaster journey through Seattle's past. If there's time afterward, pop into the Center for Wooden Boats to plan future sailing sorties.

Lunch Dine at Serious Biscuit (p105), owned by celebrity chef Tom Douglas.

Fremont (p141)

 Stroll through Westlake along the Cheshiahud Loop, or flag a bus to take you to Fremont. Soon after crossing the Fremont Bridge, you'll spy Waiting for the Interurban and plenty of other whimsical sculptures. It would be foolish to leave Fremont without a visit to Theo Chocolate Factory. Share coffee with the locals afterward at Milstead & Co before hitting the Burke-Gilman Trail (or getting a bus) to Ballard.

Dinner Go Mexican at La Carta de Oaxaca (p158) on Ballard Ave NW.

Ballard (p153)

 If weather permits, stroll out to Hiram M Chittenden Locks for sunset, before returning to Ballard Ave to experience the neighborhood's self-contained nightlife. There's no friendlier beer nook than Populuxe Brewing, a pioneering nano-brewery. More rambunctious is King's Hardware. Louder still is the Tractor Tavern, a legendary hive of indie rock and alt-country music.

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writer

Robert Balkovich

Robert was born and raised in Oregon, but has called New York City home for almost a decade. When he was a child and other families were going to theme parks and grandma's house he went to Mexico City and toured Eastern Europe by train. He's now a writer and travel enthusiast seeking experiences that are ever so slightly out of the ordinary to report back on. Follow him on Instagram @oh_balky.

Contributing writer: Becky Ohlsen contributed to the Day Trips from Seattle chapter (Mt Rainier).
