2 WEEKS Only the Best

This two-week circle tour offers an introduction to Sicily's varied wonders – ancient archaeological sites, baroque hill towns, Arab-Norman churches and castles, volcanoes and beaches.

Begin in Palermo, where you can pick up a hire car for your circumnavigation of the island. After spending some time exploring the capital's diversity of architectural treasures, head southwest to the temples at Segesta, Selinunte and Agrigento. Next, cut east across the island to the Unesco-listed Val di Noto, where the baroque beauties of Ragusa, Modica, Scicli and Noto are all obligatory stops. From here it's on to Syracuse, a highlight of any trip to Sicily: split your time here between the pedestrian-friendly ancient island city of Ortygia and the vast classical ruins of the Parco Archeologico. Continue up the coast to bustling Catania and circle Mt Etna to reach Taormina, a town whose abundant attractions include its ancient Greek theatre and the gorgeous beaches just below. Finally, loop back to Palermo via Cefalù – where the beautiful beach and 12th-century cathedral will vie for your attention – and Caccamo, home to one of Sicily's most spectacularly sited Norman castles.

7 DAYS World Heritage Sites

Unesco has enshrined a multitude of Sicilian sites on its World Heritage list; this weeklong ramble offers a sampling, from the world-famous to the lesser-known.

Begin in Syracuse, one of the ancient world's great cities, where traces of Magna Graecia are omnipresent – from papyrus-fringed Fontana Aretusa to the amphitheatres, altars and caves of the Parco Archeologico. Next head west to the Necropoli di Pantalica – an eerie assemblage of Bronze Age tombs built into limestone cliffs – before continuing to the captivating Val di Noto. The devastating earthquake of 1693 wrought havoc on this corner of the island, but also prompted the construction of some of Sicily's greatest treasures. The late-baroque towns of Noto, Modica and Ragusa are the superstars here, but it's also worth seeking out the small villages of Scicli and Palazzolo Acreide and the famed ceramics centre of Caltagirone. Continue west to Villa Romana del Casale, with its dazzling Roman mosaic floors. Finish at Sicily's most magnificent archaeological site: the Valley of the Temples at Agrigento.

7 DAYS Wining & Dining from West to East

This culinary sampler covers the full spectrum of Sicilian cuisine and its fine wines.

Start off in elegant Marsala, taste-testing the town's famous sweet wine on a cellar tour at Cantine Florio, then lingering into the evening at the many enoteche (wine bars) and restaurants. Next morning, stop in at the Saline di Trapani, which have supplied salt to Sicilian tables for centuries, before lunching on legendary fish couscous in Trapani and enjoying dessert with a breathtaking view in Erice, renowned for its marzipan fruit and nougat. Next stop is Palermo, whose colourful markets, street food, irresistible bakeries and countless fine eateries are highlights of any Sicilian food trip. Head south for a cooking course at the 400-hectare Tenuta Regaleali, one of Sicily's leading wine producers, then skirt the southern edge of the Madonie and Nebrodi Mountains, sampling the local black pork, ricotta, pecorino, mushrooms and hazelnuts in pretty hill towns like Petralia Sottana and Nicosia. Last, stop in for tastings of local honey, pistachios and Etna DOC wine on the flanks of Mt Etna before enjoying a final evening in cosmopolitan Catania.

Mountain Retreats

Discover Sicily's more traditional side along the beautiful back roads of the Madonie and Nebrodi Mountains.

Relax into your journey in picture-perfect Cefalù, where you can lounge on the beach and enjoy panoramic coastal views from the ruined Norman citadel. Follow the coast east to Castel di Tusa, famous for its collection of open-air sculptures, then turn inland and climb towards the mountain town of Mistretta. Here, grand views of the little-visited Nebrodi Mountains and a distant Mt Etna begin to unfold. After detouring to explore the medieval village of Nicosia, continue south to Enna, a handsome hill town that marks Sicily's geographic centre. Snake back north through Gangi into the heart of the Parco Naturale Regionale delle Madonie, a magnificent natural landscape dotted with hazelnut orchards, ash forests and photogenic hilltop towns. Linger a couple of days along the mountains' western edge to explore the old stone churches of Petralia Soprana and Petralia Sottana, the Targa Florio automobile race museum at Collesano and the castle at Castelbuono before rejoining the coast at Cefalù.

Smoke & Fire: Volcanic Sicily

Sicily's trio of active volcanoes – Mt Etna, Vulcano and Stromboli – form the dramatic backdrop for this tour of northeastern Sicily.

Start in Catania, a city built of lava from the devastating volcanic eruption of 1669. First, climb the volcano that did all the damage, Mt Etna. As legend would have it, it was from Etna's lofty heights that the Cyclops hurled his stones at the fleeing Odysseus – you can still see their jagged forms along the dramatic Riviera Dei Ciclopi coastline, where traditional fishing villages have been reinvented as summer resorts. From here, circumnavigate Etna's western flank via Paternò, Biancavilla, Bronte and Randazzo and continue north to Milazzo, where you can catch a ferry to Lipari, the largest of the Aeolian Islands. Read up on the archipelago's fiery past at Lipari's Museo Archeologico, then island-hop across to Salina, whose twin extinct cones are one of Sicily's most harmonious sights. The more adventurous can climb smoking Fossa di Vulcano, with its sulphur-belching crater and gooey mudbaths, or scale the 'light-house of the Mediterranean', Stromboli, an eternal lava-lamp whose eruptions continually light up the night sky.

Beach-Hopping

This tour takes in the prettiest beaches of western Sicily, from family-friendly coastal resorts to wild stretches of shoreline protected in two of the island's loveliest nature preserves.

Unpack your beach towel at Mondello, a summer playground just north of Palermo, whose deep roots as a coastal resort are reflected in its showy Liberty-era pier and summer villas. From here, it's an easy trip west to the Golfo di Castellammare, where the scenic walking trails and secluded coves of Riserva Naturale dello Zingaro are complemented by the idyllic white sands and buzzing seafood eateries of San Vito Lo Capo. Next, hop the 30-minute ferry from Trapani to the Egadi Islands, and relax for a day or two beside the aquamarine waters of Favignana's eastern beaches before resuming your journey along Sicily's Mediterranean coast. The last leg east towards Agrigento includes stopovers to ogle ancient Greek temples from the beach at Marinella di Selinunte, to stroll the vast, untrammelled sands of Riserva Naturale Torre Salsa and to sunbathe or dive off the blindingly chalk-white outcrops at Scala dei Turchi.

Island-Hopping

Leave the car behind and settle into a slower rhythm on this island-hopping adventure through the Aeolian Islands – seven volcanic beauties with seven distinct personalities, all connected by ferry and hydrofoil to Sicily's north coast.

Begin by cruising across the Tyrrhenian from Milazzo to Lipari, home to the Aeolians' only sizeable town. Here you can split your time between urban attractions and excursions to the beaches and walking trails that lie just beyond town.

From Lipari, frequent hydrofoils fan out to all the remaining islands. Vulcano is a mere 10 minutes from Lipari. Here you can explore black-sand beaches, soak in mud baths and climb the island's smoking crater. Next, head north for lush green Salina, home to Malvasia vineyards, Sicily's most famous capers and some window-shopping in the low-key villages of Malfa and Santa Marina Salina. Eventually you'll feel called to explore the outer islands: remote Filicudi with its hilltop ruin of a Bronze Age village; way off-the-beaten-track Alicudi; chic, whitewashed Panarea; and the most spectacular of all, actively erupting Stromboli.

Sicily: Off the Beaten Track

WESTERN SICILY: CRETTO DI BURRI

Stroll the surreal streets of this village destroyed by a 1968 earthquake, then encased in cement by artist Alberto Burri to create one of Europe's largest and most emotive pieces of 'land art.' (p118)

WESTERN SICILY: CAVE DI CUSA

Picnic among half-finished Greek columns in this olive-shaded ancient quarry, which provided much of the buttery yellow stone used to build the great temples of nearby Selinunte. (p120)

MEDITERRANEAN COAST: CALA PULCINO

Hike or boat in to the most remote beach on Lampedusa, Italy's southernmost island. (p275)

AEOLIAN ISLANDS: STROMBOLI'S SLEEPIER SIDE

For an enticing glimpse of end-of-the-line island life, hop off the ferry in tiny Ginostra (pop 30) and follow the pack mules up the smoking slopes of Stromboli, Sicily's most spectacularly active volcano. (p164)

TYRRHENIAN COAST: NEBRODI & MADONIE MOUNTAINS

Wind through dazzling flower-carpeted hillsides on the forgotten back roads between Mistretta, Nicosia, Sperlinga and Gangi. (p128)

CENTRAL SICILY: PARCO MINERARIO FLORISTELLA GROTTACALDA

Explore the poignant history of Sicily's sulphur-mining industry at this reserve north of Piazza Armerina. (p249)

MEDITERRANEAN COAST: BUTERA

For dizzying panoramas over the fields and hillsides of central Sicily, climb to the precipitously perched Norman castle in this sleepy off-the-beaten-track village. (p275)

SOUTHEASTERN SICILY: CAVA D'ISPICA

Walk through Cava d'Ispica, a 13km-long gorge long used as a neolithic burial site, then transformed into cave dwellings in the Middle Ages. (p231)

WRITER THANKS

Gregor Clark

Grazie mille to the many dozens of people who shared their love and knowledge of Sicily with me, especially Fausto Ceschi, Angela, Francesco, Fabiana, Micol, Stefano, Mark and Giovanna. Back in Vermont, big hugs to Gaen, Meigan and Chloe, who always make coming home the best part of the trip.

Brett Atkinson

Exploring southern Italy and Sicily with my Lonely Planet hat on was a great experience thanks to Anna Rita in Bari, Luisa in Lecce and Domenico in Reggio Calabria. Thanks also to Amy in Matera for helping me negotiate the town's storied laneways, and to Tony in Vieste for securing me a slow boat to the Isole Tremiti. Special thanks to Anna Tyler for the commission, and to Carol on our gelato- and aperitivo-fuelled reconnaissance trip 12 months earlier.

Cristian Bonetto

Grazie infinite to all those who shared their love and intimate knowledge of the Mezzogiorno. Special thanks to Ornella Tuzzolino, Giorgio Ferravioli and Carla Bellavista, Pierfrancesco Palazzotto, Lorenzo Chiaramonte, Rosario Fillari, Giorgio Puglisi, Gennaro Mattiucci, Ernesto Magri, Giovanni Gurrieri, Joe Brizzi, Giuseppe Savà, Luigi Nifosi, Antonio Adamo, Cesare Setmani, Norma Gritti and Cristina Delli Fiori. .

Nicola Williams

My teeny chunk of Sicily is dedicated to my very own expert, trilingual, family-travel research team – Mischa, Kaya, Mathias (and Niko, vicariously from his desk) – who joined me for a 2000km+ road trip exploring every last nook, cranny, lemon grove and salt pan of the island's wild west. Grazie mille to every islander who shared their love and insider knowledge with us, including Gaetana and Giuseppe at Favignana's La Casa del Limoneta, the team at Prokrite Alby Rondina, Paolo and Vittorio.

OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

OUR WRITERS

Gregor Clark

Aeolian Islands, Lampedusa, Pantelleria, Tyrrhenian Coast

Gregor Clark is a US-based writer whose love of foreign languages and curiosity have taken him to dozens of countries on five continents. Since 2000, Gregor has regularly contributed to Lonely Planet guides, including titles on Italy and France, as well as cycling guides to Italy. Gregor lives with his wife and two daughters in his current home state of Vermont. Gregor also updated the Plan, Understand and Survival Guide sections of this book.

Brett Atkinson

Central Sicily, Mediterranean Coast

Brett Atkinson is based in Auckland, New Zealand, but is frequently on the road for Lonely Planet. He's a full-time travel and food writer specialising in adventure travel, unusual destinations, and surprising angles on more well-known destinations. Since becoming a Lonely Planet author in 2005, Brett has covered areas as diverse as Vietnam, Sri Lanka, the Czech Republic, New Zealand, Morocco,

California and the South Pacific.

Cristian Bonetto

Ionian Coast, Palermo Region, Southeastern Sicily

Cristian has contributed to over 30 Lonely Planet guides to date, including Italy, Venice & the Veneto, and Naples & the Amalfi Coast. Lonely Planet work aside, his musings on travel, food, culture and design appear in numerous publications around the world, including The Telegraph (UK) and Corriere del Mezzogiorno (Italy). When not on the road, you'll find the reformed playwright and TV script-writer slurping espresso in his beloved hometown, Melbourne. Instagram: rexcat75.

Nicola Williams

Western Sicily

Border-hopping is a way of life for British writer, runner, foodie, art aficionado and mum-of-three Nicola Williams, who has authored more than 50 guidebooks on Paris, Provence, Rome, Tuscany, France, Italy and Switzerland for Lonely Planet, and covers France as a destination expert for the Telegraph. She also writes for the Independent, Guardian, lonelyplanet.com, Lonely Planet Magazine,

French Magazine, Cool Camping France and others. Catch her on the road on Twitter and Instagram at @tripalong.
