The Best of Southeast Asia

This sampling platter for Southeast Asia hits all the highlights. Start in fun-filled Bangkok, then bus over to Cambodia to Siem Reap for Angkor’s magnificent temples. Continue the party in Phnom Penh, then roll southeast to Vietnam’s bustling Ho Chi Minh City. Head north to charming Hoi An, then hit the antique streets of Hanoi and the dramatic karst outcrops of Halong Bay.

Fly out of Vietnam to Laos’ Luang Prabang for some laid-back river life, then fly on to chic Chiang Mai for fabulous food, terrific temples and jungle encounters. Loop back through Bangkok to Ko Tao and learn to dive before hitting the rock-climbing playground of Krabi. Cross the border from Ko Lipe to Malaysia’s Pulau Langkawi, then tumble on to the foodie paradise of George Town (Penang) and overland to Malaysia’s multi-ethnic capital Kuala Lumpur, with a stop in the lush Cameron Highlands.

Roll on to Singapore, for five-star food-court feasts, then fly to Medan in Sumatra and bus to Bukit Lawang to meet orangutans. Travel on by bus and boat to Jakarta, Indonesia’s capital; soak up Java’s renowned culture in Yogyakarta, then bus it to active volcano Gunung Bromo. Finally, leapfrog to Bali for sun, fun and surf.
If you really want to immerse yourself in Southeast Asia, you’ll need time to explore. Six months will give you room to roam, from mighty megacities to tropical islands and remote rainforests, with time in between to relax in some of Asia’s favourite traveller hang-outs.

Start in Bangkok and follow the coast to forested Ko Chang, then zip across the Cambodian border bound for the up-and-coming beach islands of Koh Rong and Koh Rong Sanloem. Stop in French-influenced Kampot, then zip inland to battle-scarred but rebounding Phnom Penh. Now bus it to Siem Reap and admire the splendour of Angkor.

Board a flight to Pakse, gateway to the river islands of Si Phan Don, then a bus to gentle Vientiane and on via Vang Vieng to Luang Prabang. Trundle to Nong Khiaw for tribal trekking and follow the rugged revolutionaries’ trail to Hanoi.

Roll south through Vietnam, sampling history, culture and beaches, then fly from Ho Chi Minh City back to temple-studded Bangkok. Now start your journey south along the Malay peninsula, snorkelling or diving around Ko Pha-Ngan and climbing at Krabi.

Slip over to Malaysia for the street eats of Penang and teeming coral reefs at Pulau Perhentian. Seek terrestrial wildlife inland at Taman Negara, and detour to the mist-shrouded hills of the Cameron Highlands before taking in the bright lights of Kuala Lumpur. A swift train ride will drop you in bright and bustling Singapore.

Fly on to Jakarta and admire the cultural treasures of Yogyakarta and Unesco-listed Borobudur. Bask on the beach in Bali or the Gili Islands, spot real-life dragons on Komodo and escape the crowds in Flores, or in Dili in little-visited Timor-Leste.

Alternatively fly from Jakarta to Pangkalan Bun to spot orangutans at Tanjung Puting National Park, then fly from Banjarmasin to Pontianak and bus to the border to reach Malaysia’s Kuching, a gateway to more nature and former headhunting cultures.

Take a connecting flight onwards to Yangon and the beautiful Buddhist temples of Bagan. Take a trek to Kalaw or relax by the placid waters of Inle Lake. Finish up back in Bangkok for some last-minute souvenir shopping before flying home.

Almost Everything

If you really want to immerse yourself in Southeast Asia, you’ll need time to explore. Six months will give you room to roam, from mighty megacities to tropical islands and remote rainforests, with time in between to relax in some of Asia’s favourite traveller hang-outs.

Start in Bangkok and follow the coast to forested Ko Chang, then zip across the Cambodian border bound for the up-and-coming beach islands of Koh Rong and Koh Rong Sanloem. Alternatively fly from Jakarta to Pangkalan Bun to spot orangutans at Tanjung Puting National Park, then fly from Banjarmasin to Pontianak and bus to the border to reach Malaysia’s Kuching, a gateway to more nature and former headhunting cultures.

Take a connecting flight onwards to Yangon and the beautiful Buddhist temples of Bagan. Take a trek to Kalaw or relax by the placid waters of Inle Lake. Finish up back in Bangkok for some last-minute souvenir shopping before flying home.
Become a beach connoisseur by splashing along the coastline of Thailand, Malaysia and Indonesia, with some cultural and wildlife detours to keep things interesting.

Start in Bangkok and make a beeline for the islands in the Gulf of Thailand: dive-crazy Ko Tao and hippy-trippy Ko Pha-Ngan. Get certified on Tao, then head to the Andaman coast. Hat Khao Lak is the base for dive trips to the world-class Surin and Similan islands. Skip down to adrenaline-charged Krabi for rock climbing and cave exploring, then island hop to beach-bum-vibed Ko Lipe. Cross the border at Pulau Langkawi and bus south to graze at the famous hawker centres of Penang.

From Penang, take a bus to Kota Bharu, jumping-off point for the fabulous dive islands of Pulau Perhentian. Head south to Mersing, the mainland port for sleepy, beachy Pulau Tioman, then head to Kuala Lumpur to pick up a flight to Indonesia.

From Indonesia’s tip in Medan, visit the orangutan reserve of Bukit Lawang and hike up a volcano in Berastagi. From Medan fly to less-visited Banda Aceh and dive offshore near Pulau Weh.

Say goodbye to Sumatra and buzz over to Java, touching down in Jakarta, Indonesia’s intense capital. Explore Yogyakarta and take a day-trip to the giant Buddhist stupa of Borobudur and the ancient Hindu temple of Prambanan. Continue eastwards to the volcano Gunung Bromo for a sunrise spectacle over a lunar landscape.

Leapfrog to Denpasar to nuzzle the sandy beaches of the Bukit Peninsula or get cultured in Ubud. Party in Gili Trawangan, spot dragons on Komodo and go rustic on the beaches of Flores. You may need to extend your visa in Denpasar before flying to Makassar. Pay your respects in Tana Toraja, famed for its surreal funeral rites travel to the remote and pristine Togean Islands and Pulau Bunaken; it’s well worth the trip.

To close the loop, fly from Manado to Balikpapan on Kalimantan and head overland to reach the orangutan reserve at Tanjung Puting National Park. Roll on to Pontianak and cross the border to reach Kuching in Sarawak, Malaysia, for one last flight to finish up in calm and comfortable Singapore.
Mainland to Borneo the Philippines

An adventurous trip from mainland to islands, climbing to the heavens and diving the depths. Kick off in Bangkok and follow the overland trail through Ko Chang to Sihanoukville for detours to beach islands offshore. Roll on to shabby-chic Phnom Penh, and take the river boat to Siem Reap to gaze at the architectural wonder of Angkor Wat.

Fly on to full-throttle Ho Chi Minh City, and dial down the pace at the beaches of Mui Ne and Nha Trang. Drift north to the antique city of Hoi An, the imperial capital of Hue and the extensive caves of Phong Nha-Ke Bang National Park. Rest in mature capital Hanoi, and make detours to karst-filled Halong Bay and ethnic highland gateway Sapa.

Fly on from Hanoi to Vientiane (Laos), bus to Vang Vieng and on to Luang Prabang, a temple-studded World Heritage town. Ride the Mekong River to the Laos/Thai border at Huay Xai and enter the fabled Golden Triangle.

Onwards to Chiang Mai; take in the temples then make detours to the mountains of Pai or Mae Hong Son for views and cultural encounters. Tumble south through the ancient capitals at Sukhothai and Ayuthaya before returning to Bangkok. Take a budget flight or bus south to Kuala Lumpur. Explore colonial Melaka and loop back to KL via the steamy rainforests of Taman Negara. Fly to Brunei’s unassuming capital, Bandar Seri Begawan (BSB), gateway to wildlife-rich Ulu Temburong National Park.

Cross the border into Malaysian Borneo by bus, bound for Kota Kinabalu, and ascend Mt Kinabalu, Borneo’s highest peak. Detour out to the orangutan sanctuary at Sepilok, and scuba dive around Semporna, then return to Kota Kinabalu for a flight to the Philippines. After landing in fast-paced Manila, bus it to the spectacular Ifugao rice terraces near Banaue then return to Manila and hit up party isle Boracay via dive-tastic Puerto Galera. Spend a few days unwinding, then fly or bus to Cebu City, the Philippines’ second city.

Cebu is an easy base for detours to dive at Malapascua and hill-hike on Bohol. Fly on from Cebu to Puerto Princesa on Palawan and drift north to El Nido via lonely beaches and pristine jungles. Take the all-day boat to wreck-diving playground Coron before flying back to Manila.
This trip follows Southeast Asia’s signature river downstream from northern Laos all the way to Vietnam’s Mekong Delta, offering a mesmerising window onto ever-changing landscapes and cultures.

From the bustling international gateway of Bangkok, make a beeline for Chiang Rai, near the Golden Triangle, where the borders of Laos, Myanmar and Thailand converge. Cross over into laid-back Laos at Huay Xai and step back in time. Take a slow boat down the Mekong to Luang Prabang, stopping overnight in Pak Beng. Soak up the magic before leaving the river for some relaxation in Vang Vieng.

Continue to Vientiane and reunite with the mighty waterway. The Lao capital has some great cafes, restaurants and even a sprinkling of nightlife (the last you’ll encounter for a while after leaving). Board a bus and follow the river southeast, stopping off in Tha Khaek and Savannakhet before arriving in Pakse, jumping-off point for the imposing Khmer sanctuary of Wat Phu Champasak. Detour to the waterfalls and villages of the Bolaven Plateau then drift south to the laid-back islands of Si Phan Don.

Cross into Cambodia. If you missed the Irrawaddy dolphins near Si Phan Don, you’ll get a second chance to spot them further south in the laid-back riverside town of Kratie. From Kratie, consider a visit to the mountains of Mondulkiri province, home to elephants, hill tribes and untamed jungles.

After weeks in rural provinces, it’s back to big-city living in Phnom Penh, where the Mekong merges with another vital regional waterway, the Tonlé Sap, a riverine link to Siem Reap and the majestic temples of Angkor. See the waters turn gold on a sunset cruise and hit the bars for a well-deserved night on the town.

Suitably recharged, board a fast boat downstream to Chau Doc (Vietnam), gateway to the Mekong Delta. Continue to Can Tho, commercial heart of the Delta, then hotfoot it to Ho Chi Minh City for food and fun. Delve deeper into the Delta with a homestay around Vinh Long, or make for the tropical retreat of Phu Quoc Island, a well-earned reward. If you still have time and stamina, the rest of Vietnam beckons.
Southeast Asia sets the bar high when it comes to tremendous temples for travellers to explore. Start out in Bangkok, home to iconic Wat Pho, Wat Phra Kaew and Wat Arun, before heading north to the stupa-studded former capital Ayuthaya and the ancient Khmer-era capital of Sukhothai.

See gems of the northern Lanna temple style in Chiang Mai, then continue through Chiang Rai to cross the Mekong River border at Huay Xai. Cruise on to Luang Prabang, Laos' gilded city of step-roofed temples and saffron-robed monks. Travel on to Laos' deep south to see the Khmer mountain temple of Wat Phu Champasak.

Continue into Cambodia, pass through Phnom Penh to the pre-Angkorian temples of Sambor Prei Kuk, and make an adventurous diversion north to the mountain temple of Prasat Preah Vihear before hitting the big league at the temples of Angkor.

Fly onwards from Siem Reap to Yangon, home to the shimmering Shwedagon Paya, then finish up the temple trail at Bagan, where a veritable garden of stupas stretches to the horizon.

Southeast Asia is home to a magical menagerie of signature wildlife: tigers, elephants, whale sharks, orangutans and the Komodo dragon.

Start in Bangkok, and roam east to explore Khao Yai National Park, home to wild elephants and Asian black bears. Follow the peninsula south to Khao Sok National Park to see gibbons and macaques, then explore the underwater wonderland of the Similan Islands.

Continue to Kuala Lumpur to board a flight to Kuching in Borneo. See rare proboscis monkeys in Bako National Park and gentle orangutans in Semenggoh Wildlife Centre. Cross over to Kota Kinabalu, Sabah, to explore the Sungai Kinabatangan and perhaps see rare pygmy elephants. Wind down on the beaches and reefs of the Semporna Archipelago.

Head south into Kalimantan (Indonesia) and explore the jungle waterways of Tanjung Puting National Park. Stay overnight in a klotok riverboat and visit the orangutan research station at Camp Leakey. Fly on to Bali then head east to the rocky outcrops of Komodo and Flores, home to the Komodo dragon.

A stunning landscape of limestone mountains, sloping valleys, mist-shrouded lakes and evergreen forests provides a full dose of nature exploration. For a cultural hook, ethnic minorities host rustic homestays. (p845)

A watery underworld awaits at this 7.5km-long cave explored by longtail boat. Daylight recedes as you putter deep into the darkness and bulbous-shaped calcified sculptures decorate the vaulted ceiling. (p359)

Famous for its surf breaks, this Catholic island in northern Mindanao is blessed with pretty coves, sand-dusted beaches and laid-back villages. Nearby Camiguin has hikes and off-road motorcycling on the slopes of four volcanoes, and reef dives offshore. (p599)

This pristine tract of primary rainforest, reachable only by boat, is one of the few remaining expanses of the truly wild jungle that once covered all of Borneo. (p67)

The blissful Togean Islands are an unadulterated vision of the tropics. Wander blinding white-sand beaches fringed by coconut palms and enjoy world-class snorkelling and diving on majestic coral reefs. (p292)

If you’ve made it all the way to Timor-Leste, take one more hop over to this blissfully undeveloped isle off Dili for excellent snorkelling, diving, hiking and hammock-swinging. (p806)

WRITER THANKS

Brett Atkinson
It’s always a thrill and pleasure to return to one of my favourite countries, and my thanks go to Mark Zazula in HCMC, Ben, Bich, Seamus and the gang in Phong Nha, and the Hoi An crew of Neil, Caroline, Mark and Leanne. Cheers also to Tami in Dong Ha and Sy in Dong Hoi, and it was great for my wife Carol to finally meet my good friend Kien and his family in Hanoi.

Lindsay Brown
I am very grateful for the assistance provided by numerous friendly folks across Borneo. In particular, I thank Carmalita Goh and the excellent staff at the Sabah Tourism Board in Kota Kinabalu, Leslie Chiang and the friendly folks at Borneo Guide in Brunei, Johnny Lim in Sandakan, and Jacqueline Fong in Kuching. Last but not least, thanks to Jenny for being the best travelling companion.

Jayne D’Arcy
Massive appreciation to Dora Ball and Clifton Wilkinson for the opportunity to return to Timor-Leste. Thanks to my dear friends Atoy and Julio: watching the magical journey of your country through you is a joy. Thanks to oracle Tracey Morgan, Nela Slezak in Oecussi and Matt Wilkinson on his bike. Thanks again Professor Damien Kingsbury. Thanks Rich, the dugong hunter, for keeping the kettle warm, and to Miles and Ruby, who, one day, I’ll bring to the country I love.

David Eimer
Thanks to the other Myanmar writers for their sterling work and to Laura Crawford and all the LP crew. Thanks also to Htwe Htwe in Hsipaw, John in Tiddim and Jochen in Yangon for their assistance. As ever, much gratitude to everyone I met on the road who passed on tips, whether knowingly or unwittingly. Thanks to my fellow island writers and all the LP crew in London. Thanks also to Alex and co for the nights out on Phuket.

Paul Harding
Thanks to the many people who helped with advice and information during my travels in Indonesia, including Johan and Lola in Medan, Leisa in Kalimantan, Michael in Maluku and Roni and Michael in Bukittinggi. Big thanks to Laura Crawford, Dora and Clifton at Lonely
BEHIND THE SCENES

Planet, and to fellow writer Greg Bloom for help and support. In the Philippines, thanks to Jay, Elvie and friends, Meann and Martine in Legazpi and Harvey in Caramoan. But most of all, thanks to my patient and supportive wife Hannah and my super intrepid travelling daughter Layla.

Nick Ray
A huge and heartfelt thanks to the people of Cambodia, whose warmth and humour, stoicism and spirit make it such a fascinating place to live. Biggest thanks are reserved for my lovely wife Kulikar Sotho and our children Julian and Belle, as without their support and encouragement the adventures would not be possible. Thanks also to Mum and Dad for giving me a taste for travel from a young age. Thanks to fellow travellers and residents, friends and contacts in Cambodia who have helped shaped my knowledge and experience in this country. Finally, thanks to my fellow Cambodia author Ashley Harrell and to the Lonely Planet team who have worked on this title. The author may be the public face, but a huge amount of work goes into making this a better book behind the scenes and I thank everyone for their hard work.

Tim Bewer
A hearty kòrp jài to the many people along the way who answered my incessant questions or helped me out in other ways during this update. In particular Nicolas Papon-Phalahaphan, Latanakone Keokhamphoui, Yves Verlaine, Khun Buasone, and Prapaporn Sompakdee provided great assistance while Laura, Nick, Rich and the rest of the Lonely Planet team were a pleasure to work with, as always. Finally, a special thanks to my wife Suttawan for help on this book and much more.

Joe Bindloss
I’d like to dedicate my work on this project to my son Benjamin, who arrived while I was working on this update. Thanks to all of my co-writers on this project, who provided invaluable tips and recommendations for their varied corners of Southeast Asia, often squeezing this in around their own deadlines.

Greg Bloom
A giant thanks to my crack research assistants in Manila: Windi (fountain of knowledge on all things drinking and dining), Anna (‘Manila for Kids’ guinea pig) and Callie (baby-related stress relief and laughs). Couldn’t have done it without you guys. Also to Will and LT for the (costly) casino research. To Bart for accommodating LP writers when needed. To Pia for Palawan tips. And to Luc for doing yeoman’s work post-hockey on QC nightlife.

Celeste Brash
Thanks to Chiang Mai University and my beloved professors; to Samui Steve, Iain Leonard, Frans Betgem, Lee at Akha Am and Catherine Bodry. A huge hug to Janine Brown of the Smithsonian Conservation Biology Institute for passion and insight on a tricky subject; and my family, Josh, Jasmine and Tevai who I wish could come with me on every trip. Thanks to Andrea, Raf and Rafael. To Mon in Pagudpud; Francis and Archie Baccoy and his family in Kalinga; Grail in Batad; Siegrid and Ryan in Sagada; Ryan Baldino and his uncle in Kabayan; policeman Peter in Abatan; and a huge thanks to Tuvyan Savoy in Baguio. Mostly thanks to my coauthor Greg and DE Laura for dedication and know-how, to my family for understanding and the people of North Luzon for unfaltering friendliness.

Austin Bush
A big thanks to DEs Dora Ball and Clifton Wilkinson, as well as to all the people on the ground in Bangkok and northern Thailand. I’m grateful for all the wonderful people on the ground in northern Vietnam, but my trip was made especially easier and more enjoyable by Mr Tung at Cat Ba Ventures, James and Mr Minh at Vision Travel, and the villagers of Na Hu, as well as my helpful Destination Editor, Laura Crawford.

Ria de Jong
Thank you to my destination editors Clifton Wilkinson and Tanya Parker for all their help guiding me through my Lonely Planet adventure, and to all those I met along my travels who kindly shared their knowledge, time and Singapore secrets with me. To Craig, Cisca and William, my travelling circus tribe.

Michael Grosberg
Thanks to all the kind people I met on the road. Especially to folks at the Iloilo provincial tourism office; Jac Señagan in Dumaguete; Ulrika, Julia and Fiona in Dauin; Mike of Coco Grove on Siquijor; Arno and Kaisa on Camiguin; Gerry and Susan for their warmth and friendship in Siargao; Princess Villarama, Sarah Sapo, Angelo Balao and Joaquin de Jesus on Boracay for their insight on Filipino music. To Carly, Rosie and Boone for making me never feel far from home.

Damian Harper
Huge thanks to the late Neil Bambridge, much gratitude for everything, may you rest in peace. Also thanks to Neil’s wife Ratchi, to Maurice Senseit, the jolly staff at Nira’s in Thong Sala, Piotr, Gemma, James Horton,
George W. Celeste Brash and everyone else who helped along the way, in whatever fashion.

Ashley Harrell

Thanks to: wise editors Laura Crawford and Clifton Wilkinson, and coauthor Nick Ray for the faith and guidance; Lauren Gurfein for introducing me to Cambodia; Andy Lavender for the dog-sitting; Peyton Bowsher for the dog-tolerating; Jess in Kampot for going above and beyond; Nicole and Alex for excellent company on Koh Totang; Ben, Sharyon, Amelie, Jarrah and Georgie for my favourite ‘research’ day, Lim for the hospitality/volcano sauce, and Nick Berry for showing me real Cambodia and teaching me to ride a motorbike. Thanks also to beautiful surfer Shaina Miller, monkey harasser Andy Wright, safety patrol Sean Abrams, penis gourd model Dustin Weatherford, magical Baliem Valley guide Antoni Sitepu, expert Raja Ampat guy Stuart Wilkinson, Lonely Planet loyalists Mac and John, parents Ronni and Mack, brothers Evan and Alex, and grandmother Adele Fox, the best Gumpy a girl could have asked for, who refused to depart this world before I could return home for a proper goodbye. Love you always.

Trent Holden

First up thanks very much for Dora Ball for giving me an opportunity to cover such a cool destination like Java. Thanks also to all the production team for putting this book together. On the ground a massive thanks goes to Gusri Tri Patra and Zulfindo ‘Ajou’ Koto for helping me getting around, and the many laughs along the way. Also thanks to Laura from Laura’s Backpacker 523 in Yogyakarta and Yoppie from the Attic in Bandung for your help in piecing together vital travel info. Finally lots of love to my family and my partner Kate.

Anita Isalska

Huge thanks to everyone who generously gave time, tips or a warm welcome during my time in Malaysia. I’m especially grateful to Isabel Albiston, Alex Yong, Marco Ferrarese, Narelle McMurtrie and Howard Tan. Big thanks to Dora and Cliff. And endless gratitude to my write-up champion, Normal Matt.

Mark Johanson

I owe a huge debt of gratitude to the lovely people in Laos who not only made the country such a joy to revisit but either knowingly or (more often) unwittingly helped me along. Special thanks go out to Miss Noy, Mr Ping, Kaz Kumrunrotschna, Michel Marcel Saada, Lara Picavet and Tom Chanthaphone for unlocking the secrets of their respective regions. Thanks to Felipe Bascunhan for tolerating my long absences and to Laura Crawford for taking a chance on a guidebook newbie.

Hugh McNaughtan

I’d like to thank Agus, Hernan, Edwin and all the other kind people who helped me get to grips with Nusa Tenggara and Sulawesi; Cliff and everyone I worked with at LP for the opportunity and support; and, most of all, Tas, Maise and Willa for their endless forbearance.

Rebecca Milner

I am indebted to the journalists, scholars and bloggers who cover the region with insight, fearlessness and compassion.

Iain Stewart

I was lucky to have a wonderful research trip along Vietnam’s stunning coastline. Thanks to Mark, Lu and Matt Cowan in Saigon, Caroline Mills, Neil Fraser and Travis in Hoi An, team Nha Trang and Grazina, Thomas and Julia. My appreciation as well to Laura Crawford and my coauthors. Thanks to Laura for the commission, to Greg Bloom for help and contacts in the region, to Jamie Marshall for sharing some of the hard yards on the road, to Gino and Nikki in Bantayan and Cebu, Jacques and Lucia in Tacloban for expert advice and to the good folk of Calicoan Island, particularly Luna Beach resort. Many tourist information staff helped me on the way across the region, and I am grateful to you all.

Andy Symington

A great number of people, from taxi drivers to information officers, gave me excellent advice and help along the way: I’m very grateful to all of them. Specific thanks go to Siriporn Chiangpoon, Ian on Ko Chang, Maitri in Si Racha, Chayanin in Chanthaburi and the friendly Ang Sila volunteers.

Phillip Tang

Many thanks to the Vietnamese people and friends, especially Pham Hoang Manh in Hanoi, Nam, Tri and Liam Le in Saigon, Mr The for Ha Tien and Hon Chong, Nghiem Nguyen and Anthony in Can Tho, Phuc Anh for the adventure to Tra Vinh. Thank you Laura Crawford for having me on board again. Thanks to Daniel Belfield for dressing gowns, bao, cocktails and xe om teaming.

Hugh McNaughtan
Indonesia A former English lecturer, Hugh swapped grant applications for visa applications, and turned his love of travel into a full-time thing. Having done a bit of restaurant-reviewing in his home town (Melbourne) he’s now eaten his way across four continents. He’s never happier than when on the road with his two daughters. Except perhaps on the cricket field...

Rebecca Milner
Southeast Asia regional content California born, longtime Tokyo resident (15 years and counting!). Rebecca has coauthored Lonely Planet guides to Tokyo, Japan, Korea and China. She is also a freelance writer covering travel, food and culture, published in The Guardian, the Independent, the Sunday Times Travel Magazine, the Japan Times and more. After spending the better part of her twenties working to travel – doing odd jobs in Tokyo to make money to spend months at a time backpacking around Asia – Rebecca was fortunate enough to turn the tables in 2010, joining the Lonely Planet team of freelance authors.

Simon Richmond
Malaysia Journalist and photographer Simon Richmond has specialised as a travel writer since the early 1990s and first worked for Lonely Planet in 1999 on their Central Asia guide. He’s long since stopped counting the number of guidebooks he’s researched and written for the company, but countries covered including Australia, China, India, Iran, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Mongolia, Myanmar (Burma), Russia, Singapore, South Africa and Turkey. His travel features have been published in newspapers and magazines around the world, including in the UK’s Independent, Guardian, Times, Daily Telegraph and Royal Geographical Society Magazine; and Australia’s Sydney Morning Herald and Australian newspapers and Australian Financial Review Magazine.

Iain Stewart
Vietnam Iain trained as journalist in the 1990s and then worked as a news reporter and a restaurant critic in London. He started writing travel guides in 1997 and has since penned more than 60 books for destinations as diverse as Ibiza and Cambodia. Iain’s contributed to Lonely Planet titles including Mexico, Indonesia, Central America, Croatia, Vietnam, Bali & Lombok and Southeast Asia. He also writes regularly for the Independent, The Observer and The Daily Telegraph and tweets at @iaintravel. He’ll consider working anywhere there’s a palm tree or two and a beach of a generally sandy persuasion. Iain lives in Brighton (UK) within firing range of the city’s wonderful south-facing horizon.

Andy Symington
Thailand Andy has written or worked on more than a hundred books and other updates for Lonely Planet (especially in Europe and Latin America) and other publishing companies, and has published articles on numerous subjects for a variety of newspapers, magazines and websites. He part-owns and operates a rock bar, has written a novel, and is currently working on several fiction and nonfiction writing projects. Originally from Australia, Andy moved to northern Spain many years ago. When he’s not off with a backpack in some far-flung corner of the world, he can probably be found watching the tragically poor local football side or tasting local wines after a long walk in the nearby mountains.

Phillip Tang
Vietnam Phillip Tang grew up on a typically Australian diet of pho and fish’n’chips before moving to Mexico City. A degree in Chinese- and Latin-American cultures launched him into travel and then writing about it for Lonely Planet’s Canada, China, Japan, Korea, Mexico, Peru and Vietnam guides. Writing at hellophilip.com, photos @mrtangtangtang, and tweets @philliptang.

Contributing Writers & Researchers
Isabel Albiston, Ryan Ver Berkmoes, Adam Skolnick
Michael Grosberg
Philippines Michael has worked on more than 45 Lonely Planet guidebooks. Whether covering Myanmar or New Jersey, each project has added to his rich and complicated psyche and taken years from his (still?) relatively young life. Prior to his freelance writing career, other international work included development on the island of Rota in the western Pacific; time in South Africa where he investigated and wrote about political violence and helped train newly elected government representatives; and a stint teaching in Quito, Ecuador. He received a Masters in Comparative Literature and taught literature and writing as an adjunct professor at several New York City area colleges.

Damian Harper
Thailand With two degrees (one in modern and classical Chinese from SOAS), Damian has been writing for Lonely Planet for more than two decades, contributing to titles as covering destinations as diverse as China, Beijing, Shanghai, Vietnam, Thailand, Ireland, London, Mallorca, Malaysia, Singapore & Brunei, Hong Kong, China’s Southwest and the UK. A seasoned guidebook writer, Damian has penned articles for numerous newspapers and magazines, including The Guardian and The Daily Telegraph, and currently makes Surrey, England, his home. A self-taught trumpet novice, his other hobbies include collecting modern first editions, photography and Taekwondo. Follow Damian on Instagram (damian.harper).

Ashley Harrell
Cambodia, Indonesia After a brief stint selling day spa coupons door-to-door in South Florida, Ashley decided she'd rather be a writer. She went to journalism grad school, convinced a newspaper to hire her, and starting covering wildlife, crime and tourism, sometimes all in the same story. Fuelling her zest for storytelling and the unknown, she travelled widely and moved often, from a tiny NYC apartment to a vast California ranch to a jungle cabin in Costa Rica, where she started writing for Lonely Planet. From there her travels became more exotic and farther flung, and she still laughs when paychecks arrive.

Trent Holden
Indonesia A Geelong-based writer, located just outside Melbourne, Trent has worked for Lonely Planet since 2005. He’s contributed to 30-plus guidebooks covering Asia, Africa and Australia. With a penchant for megacities, Trent’s in his element when assigned to cover a nation’s capital – the more chaotic the better – to unearth cool bars, art, street food and underground subculture. On the flipside he also writes books to idyllic tropical islands across Asia, in between going on safari to national parks in Africa and the subcontinent. When not travelling, Trent works as a freelance editor, reviewer and spending all his money catching live gigs. You can catch him on Twitter @hombreholden.

Anita Isalska
Malaysia, Thailand Anita Isalska is a travel journalist, editor and copywriter. After several merry years as a staff writer and editor – a few of them in Lonely Planet’s London office – Anita now works freelance between Australia, the UK and any Alpine chalet with good wi-fi. Anita writes about France, Eastern Europe, Southeast Asia and off-beat travel. Read her stuff on www.anitaisalska.com.

Mark Johanson
Laos Mark Johanson grew up in Virginia and has called five different countries home over the last decade. His travel-writing career began as something of a quarter-life crisis, and he’s happily spent the past eight years circling the globe reporting for Australian travel magazines (such as Get Lost), British newspapers (such as The Guardian), American lifestyles (such as Men’s Journal) and global media outlets (such as CNN and BBC). When not on the road, you’ll find him gazing at the Andes from his home in Santiago, Chile. Follow the adventure at www.markjohanson.com.
Nick Ray

Cambodia  A Londoner of sorts, Nick comes from Watford, the sort of town that makes you want to travel. He lives in Phnom Penh with his wife, Kulikar, and children, Julian and Belle. He has written for countless guidebooks on the Mekong region, including Lonely Planet’s Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos & Northern Thailand and Myanmar books, as well as Southeast Asia on a Shoestring. When not writing, he is often out exploring the remote parts of Cambodia as a location scout and manager for the world of television and film, including everything from Tomb Raider to Top Gear. Motorbikes are a part-time passion and he has travelled through most of Indochina on two wheels.

Tim Bewer

Thailand  After university Tim worked as a legislative assistant before quitting capitol life to backpack around West Africa. It was during this trip that the idea of becoming a travel writer and photographer was hatched, and he’s been at it ever since. He has visited more than 80 countries, including most in Southeast Asia. His first journey to Laos was in 1997, before the highway from Vientiane to the south was paved, and he’s returned nearly a dozen times since. He lives in Khon Kaen, Thailand.

Joe Bindloss

Southeast Asia regional content  Joe first got the travel bug on a grand tour of Asia in the early 1990s, and he’s been roaming around its temples and paddy fields ever since on dozens of assignments for Lonely Planet and other publishers, covering everywhere from Myanmar and Thailand to India and Nepal. When not on the road, Joe works as Lonely Planet’s Destination Editor for the Indian Subcontinent.

Greg Bloom

Philippines  Greg is a freelance writer, tour operator and travel planner based out of Siem Reap, Cambodia, and Manila, Philippines. Greg began his writing career in the late ‘90s in Ukraine, working as a journalist and later editor-in-chief of the Kyiv Post, an English-language weekly. As a freelance travel writer, he has contributed to some 35 Lonely Planet titles, mostly in Eastern Europe and Asia. Greg also researched the Plan Your Trip section and the Survival Guide section.

Celeste Brash

Thailand  Like many California natives, Celeste now lives in Portland, Oregon. She arrived however after 15 years in French Polynesia, a year and a half in Southeast Asia and a stint teaching English as a second language (in an American accent) in Brighton, England – among other things. She’s been writing guidebooks for Lonely Planet since 2005 and her travel articles have appeared in publications from BBC Travel to National Geographic. She’s currently writing a book about her five years on a remote pearl farm in the Tuamotu Atolls and is represented by the Donald Maass Agency, New York.

Austin Bush

Vietnam, Thailand  Austin originally came to Thailand in 1999 as part of a language study program hosted by Chiang Mai University. The lure of city life, employment and spicy food eventually led him to Bangkok and have managed to keep him there since. Austin works as a writer and photographer, and has contributed text and photos to more than 20 Lonely Planet titles including Bangkok: The Food Book; Food Lover’s Guide to the World; Ko Samui Encounter; Laos; Malaysia; Singapore & Brunei; Myanmar (Burma); Pocket Bangkok; Phuket Encounter; Thailand; Thailand’s Islands & Beaches; Vietnam, Cambodia, Laos & Northern Thailand; and The World’s Best Street Food.

Ria de Jong

Singapore  Born in Sri Lanka to Dutch/Australian parents, Ria has always relished the hustle and excitement of this continent of contrasts. After growing up in Townsville, Australia, Ria moved to Sydney as a features writer before packing her bags for a five-year stint in the Philippines. Having moved to Singapore in 2015 with her husband and two small children, Ria is loving discovering every nook and cranny of this tiny nation. This is Ria’s second Southeast Asia on a Shoestring update.
OUR STORY

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that’s all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they’d sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony’s belief that ‘a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse’.

OUR WRITERS

Brett Atkinson
Central Vietnam

Brett Atkinson is based in Auckland, New Zealand, but is frequently on the road for Lonely Planet. He’s a full-time travel and food writer specialising in adventure travel, unusual destinations and surprising angles on more well-known destinations. He is featured regularly on the Lonely Planet website, and in newspapers, magazines and websites across New Zealand and Australia. Brett has covered areas as diverse as Vietnam, Sri Lanka, the Czech Republic, New Zealand, Morocco, California and the South Pacific.

Lindsay Brown
Brunei Darussalam, Indonesia, Malaysia

Lindsay started travelling as young bushwalker exploring the Blue Mountains west of Sydney. Then, as a marine biologist, he dived the coastal and island waters of southeastern Australia. He continued travelling whenever he could while employed at Lonely Planet as an editor and publishing manager. Since becoming a freelance writer and photographer he has co-authored more than 35 Lonely Planet guides to Australia, Bhutan, India, Malaysia, Nepal, Pakistan and Papua New Guinea.

Jayne D’Arcy
Timor-Leste

Taking the first step on a new country’s soil used to send shivers of excitement up Jayne’s spine: now everything about new sights and activities does. Keen to research by bike, she also loves checking out a new town’s early morning scene with a quick dawn run. Recent winner of an Australian award for best adventure travel story, she plans to keep on trekking. She’s worked in Ireland and Timor-Leste, and is now based in Melbourne, Australia. Instagram: @jayne.darcy.

David Eimer
Myanmar (Burma), Thailand

David has been a journalist and writer ever since abandoning the idea of a law career in 1990. After spells working in his native London and in Los Angeles, he moved to Beijing in 2005, where he contributed to a variety of newspapers and magazines in the UK. Since then, he has travelled and lived across China and in numerous cities in Southeast Asia, including Bangkok, Phnom Penh and Yangon. He has been covering China, Myanmar and Thailand for Lonely Planet since 2006. David also wrote the Plan Your Trip, Understand and Survival Guide chapters.

Paul Harding
Indonesia, Laos, Philippines

As a writer and photographer, Paul has been travelling the globe for the best part of two decades, with an interest in remote and offbeat places, islands and cultures. He’s an author and contributor to more than 50 Lonely Planet guides to countries and regions as diverse as India, Belize, Vanuatu, Iran, Indonesia, New Zealand, Iceland, Finland, Philippines and – his home patch – Australia.
