Top Itineraries

Day One

Circular Quay & the Rocks (p52)

Why postpone joy? Start at Circular Quay and head directly to Sydney Opera House. Circle around it and follow the shoreline into the Royal Botanic Garden. Have a good look around and then continue around Mrs Macquaries Point and down to Woolloomooloo.

Lunch Grab a pie at Harry's Cafe de Wheels (p141), a Sydney institution.

City Centre & Haymarket (p85)

Head up to the Art Gallery of NSW. Take some time to explore the gallery then cross the Domain and cut through Sydney Hospital to Macquarie St. Parliament House is immediately to the right, while to the left is the Mint and Hyde Park Barracks. Cross into Hyde Park and head straight through its centre, crossing Park St and continuing on to the Anzac Memorial.

Dinner Catch a cab to the Devonshire (p130), for relaxed, inventive fine dining.

Surry Hills & Darlinghurst (p122)

After dinner, if you haven't booked tickets for a play at Belvoir, take a stroll along Crown St. There are plenty of good bars and pubs to stop at along the way.

Day Two

Bondi to Coogee (p156)

Grab your swimming gear and head to the beach. Catch the bus to Bondi and spend some time strolling about and soaking it all in. If the weather's right, stop for a swim. Once you're done, take the clifftop path to Tamarama and on to Bronte.

Lunch Detour slightly up to Bronte's excellent Three Blue Ducks (p164).

Bondi to Coogee (p156)

Continue on the coastal path through Waverley Cemetery and down to Clovelly. This is a great spot to stop for a swim or a snorkel. Continuing on you'll pass Gordons Bay and Dolphin Point before you arrive at Coogee Beach. Stop for a drink on the rooftop of Coogee Pavilion then jump aboard a bus back to Bondi Junction. Shopaholics can have a brief whirl around Westfield.

Dinner Fortify yourself for a Cross blinder at buzzy Ms G's (p140).

Kings Cross & Potts Point (p136)

Everyone needs at least one trashy night up the Cross. Start with cocktails at Jimmy Lik's after dinner. Back it up with a tipple at Bootleg. Then Sugar-mill, Kings Cross Hotel, World Bar...

Day Three

Sydney Harbour (p69)

 Take the scenic ferry ride from Circular Quay to Watsons Bay. Walk up to the Gap, to watch the waves pounding against the cliffs, then continue on to Camp Cove for a dip. Take the South Head Heritage Trail for sublime views of the city and the whole of the upper harbour.

Lunch Pull up a pew with a view at Dunbar House (p81).

Circular Quay & the Rocks (p52)

 Head back to Circular Quay and spend the afternoon exploring the Rocks. Start at the Museum of Contemporary Art and then head up into the network of narrow lanes to the Rocks Discovery Museum. Continue through the Argyle Cut to Millers Point and wander up Observatory Hill. Pop into one of Sydney's oldest pubs (maybe the Lord Nelson or Hero of Waterloo) and then cut down to Walsh Bay and double back under Sydney Harbour Bridge.

Dinner Book well in advance for Sydney's top restaurant, Quay (p64).

Circular Quay & the Rocks (p52)

 If last night was your trashy night, make this your glamorous one. Book a show at Sydney Opera House or Walsh Bay, or head straight to Opera Bar

Day Four

Darling Harbour & Pyrmont (p102)

 Have a stroll around the waterfront and settle on whichever of the big attractions takes your fancy – perhaps the Australian National Maritime Museum, Sydney Sea Life Aquarium or Wild Life Sydney Zoo. Each of these will easily fill up an entire morning.

Lunch For a cheap bite, pop up to Central Baking Depot (p95).

Sydney Harbour (p69)

 Jump on the river service at King St Wharf and take an hour-long cruise upstream as far as Sydney Olympic Park. Take a stroll around Newington Nature Reserve until the next ferry arrives to whisk you back. Stop at Cocktaoo Island for a look at its art installations and the remnants of its convict and shipbuilding past. From here you can either catch a ferry to Balmain, or head straight back to Darling Harbour or Circular Quay.

Dinner Have a final night of Modern Australian cuisine at Ester (p114).

Inner West (p108)

 After dinner stroll up to King St, Newtown, and cruise the late-night bookshops and bars. A short pub-crawl could include Corridor, Zanzibar, Courthouse Hotel, Midnight Special and Earl's Juke Joint. Or continue on to

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Peter Dragicevich

After a decade of frequent flights between his native New Zealand and Sydney, the lure of the bright lights and endless beach days drew Peter across the Tasman on a more permanent basis. For the best part of the next decade he would call Sydney's inner suburbs home, while managing the city's most popular gay and lesbian newspaper, followed by a stable of upmarket food, fashion and photography magazines. More recently he's coauthored dozens of titles for Lonely Planet, including two previous editions of this guide and five other Australian titles. Peter wrote the Plan Your Trip and Explore Sydney chapters (excluding Sydney with Kids, Like a Local, For Free, Beaches, Day Trips from Sydney and Sleeping), along with the Understand Sydney and Survival Guide sections.

Miriam Raphael

Miriam has authored over a dozen books for Lonely Planet, racking up thousands of kilometres driving across Australia's wide brown lands in pursuit of the greatest hidden beaches, outback-pub meals and curious characters.

She regularly enthuses on all things travel for a range of Australian and international publications, while blogging about intrepid journeys with kids at SevenSuitcases.com. After many years living in Australia's extraordinary Northern Territory she has recently returned to her hometown of Sydney. Miriam wrote the Sydney with Kids, Like a Local, For Free, Beaches, Day Trips from Sydney and Sleeping chapters.
