Top Itineraries

Day One

National Mall (p56)

 You might as well dive right into the good stuff, and the Lincoln Memorial is about as iconically DC as it gets. It's also a convenient starting point, since Abe sits at the far end of the Mall. Next up as you walk east is the powerful Vietnam Veterans Memorial. Then comes the Washington Monument, which is pretty hard to miss, being DC's tallest structure and all.

Lunch Munch sandwiches by an artsy waterfall at Cascade Café (p75).

National Mall (p56)

 After lunch, it's time to explore the National Museum of African American History and Culture (assuming you've procured a ticket) or the National Gallery of Art. Pick a side: East, for modern; or West, for Impressionists and other classics. Afterward, mosey across the lawn to the National Air and Space Museum and gape at the stuff hanging from the ceiling. The missiles and the Wright Brothers' original plane are incomparably cool.

Dinner Hop the Metro to Bistrot du Coin (p149) in Dupont Circle.

Dupont Circle & Kalorama (p143)

 Dupont parties in the evening. Sip cocktails at Bar Charley, hoist brews with locals at Board Room or hit one of the dance clubs.

Day Two

Capitol Hill & South DC (p104)

 Do the government thing this morning. Start in the Capitol and tour the statue-cluttered halls. Then walk across the street and up the grand steps to the Supreme Court; hopefully you'll get to hear a case argument. The Library of Congress and its 500 miles of books blow minds next door.

Lunch Have a burger amid politicians at Old Ebbitt Grill (p86).

White House Area & Foggy Bottom (p76)

 Hopefully you planned ahead and booked a White House tour. If not, make do at the White House Visitor Center. Pop into the Round Robin to see if any bigwigs and lobbyists are clinking glasses. Zip over to the Kennedy Center to watch the free 6pm show.

Dinner Have French fare at Chez Billy Sud (p97) or pizza at Il Canale (p97).

Georgetown (p92)

 After dinner, sink a pint in a friendly pub like the Tombs. On warm nights the outdoor cafes and boating action make Georgetown Waterfront Park a hot spot. And check if anyone groovy is playing at Blues Alley.

Arlington National Cemetery (p197)

Day Three

Northern Virginia (p195)

 Walking around Arlington National Cemetery you can't help but be moved, from the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier's dignified guards to John F Kennedy's eternal flame. One Metro stop south, the Pentagon offers another affecting memorial to those who died in the September 11, 2001, attacks.

Lunch Treat yourself at Central Michel Richard (p138) or Rasika (p137).

Downtown & Penn Quarter (p128)

 It's an abundance of riches downtown. See the Declaration of Independence at the National Archives, and the seat where Lincoln was shot at Ford's Theatre. The Reynolds Center for American Art & Portraiture hangs sublime paintings. The Newseum has the Unabomber's cabin. You'll have to make some hard choices about which sights to visit.

Dinner Seek out Compass Rose (p172) for a romantic global taste-trip.

Logan Circle, U Street & Columbia Heights (p165)

 Mosey around 14th St and U St NW, and there's nightlife galore. Sip beneath the Elizabeth Taylor mural at free-spirited Dacha Beer Garden, split your eardrums at the rock-and-roll Black Cat, or grab a beer at neighborhood favorite Right Proper Brewing Co.

Day Four

Upper Northwest DC (p186)

 If you have kids, get to the National Zoo. Even without kids, the zoo entertains thanks to its giant pandas and brainy orangutans. Earmark some quality time for Washington National Cathedral and its Darth Vader gargyle, moon rock and Helen Keller's ashes, among other esoteric offerings.

Lunch 2 Amys (p191) serves excellent thin-crust pizzas, antipasti and craft brews.

Adams Morgan (p156)

 Adams Morgan is Washington's party zone, but during the day Meeps and Idle Time Books provide plenty to do. Plus you're well situated for happy hour at Songbyrd Record Cafe & Music House, a cool retro bar.

Dinner Share Mediterranean small plates at Tail Up Goat (p161).

National Mall (p56)

 End in the 'hood where you began your Washington trip, but experience it from a different perspective. Walk along Constitution Ave from east to west. The dramatically lit monuments glow ethereally at night. Climb the steps of the Lincoln Memorial and turn around for one last, long fantastic view. That'll do it, until you and DC meet again.

WRITER THANKS

Karla Zimmerman

Deep appreciation to all of the locals who spilled the beans on their favorite places. Special thanks to Kate Armstrong, Virginia Maxwell, Ryan Ver Berkmoes, Amy Schwenkmeyer and Bill Brockschmidt. Thanks most to Eric Markowitz, the world's best partner-for-life, who kindly indulges my Abe Lincoln fixation. You top my Best List.

Virginia Maxwell

Thanks to DC locals Barbara Balman and Bob Bresnahan for their convivial company and insider tips; to Trisha Ping for giving me the gig and supplying interesting leads; to DC expert Karla Zimmerman; and to traveling companions Eveline Zoutendijk, George Grundy and Ryan Ver Berkmoes. At home in Australia, thanks and much love to Peter Handsaker, who coped with apartment renovation chaos and didn't blame me for my absence (well, not too much).

This is a detailed street map of Washington, D.C., showing the area from the Potomac River to the north and from the city center to the east. The map includes major roads like Pennsylvania Ave NW, Constitution Ave NW, and the National Mall. Key landmarks such as the US Capitol, Smithsonian, and various parks are labeled. A blue box highlights the area around the US Capitol, and a red box highlights the area around the US Holocaust Memorial Museum. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates distances in miles and kilometers.

Our Story

A beat-up old car, a few dollars in the pocket and a sense of adventure. In 1972 that's all Tony and Maureen Wheeler needed for the trip of a lifetime – across Europe and Asia overland to Australia. It took several months, and at the end – broke but inspired – they sat at their kitchen table writing and stapling together their first travel guide, Across Asia on the Cheap. Within a week they'd sold 1500 copies. Lonely Planet was born.

Today, Lonely Planet has offices in Franklin, London, Melbourne, Oakland, Dublin, Beijing and Delhi, with more than 600 staff and writers. We share Tony's belief that 'a great guidebook should do three things: inform, educate and amuse'.

Our Writers

Karla Zimmerman

Adams Morgan, Capitol Hill & South DC, Downtown & Penn Quarter, Dupont Circle & Kalorama, Georgetown, Logan Circle, U Street & Columbia Heights

Karla lives in Chicago, where she eats doughnuts, yells at the Cubs, and writes stuff for books, magazines, and websites when she's not doing the first two things. She has contributed to 40-plus guidebooks and travel anthologies covering destinations in Europe, Asia, Africa, North America, and the Caribbean – all of which are a long way from the early days, when she wrote about gravel for a construction magazine and got to trek to places like Fredonia, Kansas. To learn more, follow her @karlazimmerman on Instagram and Twitter. Karla also wrote the Plan, Understand and Survival Guide chapters.

Virginia Maxwell

Leesburg & Middleburg, National Mall, Northern Virginia, Shenandoah National Park, Upper Northwest DC, White House & Foggy Bottom

Although based in Australia, Virginia spends at least half of her year updating Lonely Planet destination coverage across the globe. Though the Mediterranean is her major area of interest – she has covered Spain, Italy, Turkey, Syria, Lebanon, Israel, Egypt and Morocco for LP guidebooks – Virginia also covers

Finland, Armenia, the United States and Australia for LP products. Follow her @maxwellvirginia on Instagram and Twitter.
